The bill provides that any member of Congress or officer of the Government committing such offense shall be liable to indictment for a misde meanor, and if convicted shall suffer a fine not exceeding $10,000 and an imprisonment not exceeding two years, and afterwards be disqualified for holding office under the United States, and such contracts shall be void at the option of the President. The Judiciary Committee had made the bill stronger than the original one. He had heard that there were cases of officers of the Government using their office for rewards and he thought there could be no objection to this

Mr. Hale thought the bill did not go far enough. He had heard and believed that the heads of departments used their places for the grossest favoritism, and in some cases had ordered contracts to be given to their special favorites. He would make it a penal offense for the heads of departments to order those under them to make contracts with special favorites. Mr. Trumbull moved to amerd so as to make the bill apply to those who for any reward, compensation or consideration, give any contract, of-

The amendment was adopted and the bill Mr. Hale, from the Conference Committee, on the bill for the reorganization of the Navy Department, made a report, which was agreed to. The confiscation bill was then taken up. Mr. Cowan proceeded to speak at length against the vill from the House, which he contended was creased, and their camp much improved. impracticable, and utterly impossible to put in Senate adjourned. HOUSE .- The House resumed the consideration of the bill providing indemnity to loyal citizens for losses and damages to property by U. S.

Mr. Noel, of Missouri, in the course of his remarks, said any man who was opposed to the settlement of these claims, merely because it would impose a burden on the Government, was unfit to be a representative of the people. The and influential men had generally met with most success in Congress. Thousands of loval citizens have been reduced almost to starvation, and their homes have been desolated, and if there was not justice and magnanimity enough here to | je26-d3w provide for such a class of persons, it would be a burning shame forever.

The morning honr expired, and the subject was Mr. Edwards, from the Committee on Indian Affairs, reported a bill relating to the trust funds of the Indian tribes invested by the Government by the State bonds extracted from the Indian Department. The bill provides that the Govern ment shall credit the Indians with the amount originally invested for them in the bonds, and the payment of the interest hereafter at the rate SOLE APPOINTING AGENTS FOR THE Fremont Relleved from Command Washington, June 27 .- The following was issued from the War Department to-day: Major General John C. Fremont having requested to be relieved from the command of the first army corps of the army of Virginia, because, as he says, the position assigned him by the appointment of Major Gen. Pope as Commander-in-Chief of the army of Virginia, is sub ordinate and inferior to those heretofore held by him, and to remain in the subordinate command now assigned would, as he says, largely reduce his rank and consideration in the service, it is ordered that Major Gen. John C. Fremont be relieved from command. Second, that Brigadier General Rufus King be diers' Home." and he is hereby assigned to the command of the Je25-did first army corps of the army of Virginia, in place of Gen. Fremont relieved.

The first two regiments drove the gunners from the guns and some even penetrated the works, but other regiments failing to support them they had to retire after holding the battery some twenty minutes. In the meantime Col. Williams coming to support them was separated from the fort by a marsh and exposed to a severe cross fire from some rebel gans in the woods. His troops, the 3d New Hampshire and 3d Rhode Island, fought nobly with considerable loss.

WASHINGTON, June 27 .- Gen. Pope entered upon his duties to-day. Emerson Etheridge will deliver an oration from the steps of the Washington Monument, at Bal timore, on the 4th of July. Extensive preparations for celebrating this national holiday have been made by the Union men of that city. The treaty made through Minister Corwin, loaning $11,000,000 to Mexico, has, it is understood, been sent into the Senate by the President. The delay in the presentation of this treaty has, it is thought, been owing to the reluctance of the President to submit a project so directly at variance with the recent action of the Senate upon the subject of Mexican affairs.

After the adjournment of the House to-day, the following notice was read from the clerk's

Mr. Fessenden, towards the close of the proceedings in the Senote to-day, u-ged prompt action upon the measures pending and stated that if this course should not be pursued the body might be left without a quorum. He mentioned, in this connection, that Senators were already leaving the city and that one from California and another from Minnesota had departed. He alluded to Senators Latham and Rice. Senator Lane of Kansas remarked that he, too, was desirous of an early return to that State but would remain to vote on the confiscation bill which is now before that body.

In the House the number necessary to constitute a quorum is obtained without regard to nonrepresented States, but in the Senate a of the Senators from the thirty-four States is necessary for that purpose, in other words thirtyfive members. The entire number of elected Senators on the roll of that body is forty-nine, including Senator Johnson of Tennessee. It is reported that the President has accepted

Gen. Shield's resignation. It is rumored that Gen. Hunter ordered the ne gro brigade to James Island, but several officers refused to accompany the contrabands and the project was abandoned. Two surgeons were sent home in the Ericsson by Gen. Hunter for refusing to act as brigade surgeons to negro regiments.
